Farmingville, NY - On February 15, Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Kevin LaValle attended the Grand Re-Opening of Cella Bagels located at 1198 Middle Country Road in Selden. On the morning of December 25, Cella Bagels was damaged by a fire in an adjacent salon that was determined to be arson. Pictured left to right are Councilman LaValle, Cella Bagels co-owners John Rose and Gene Cella, Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore and Supervisor Romaine.

"I am happy to welcome Cella Bagels back to the Selden community," said Supervisor Ed Romaine. "John and Gene worked very hard to get their business up and running again and I wish them all the best."

Councilman LaValle said, "Cella Bagels is one of the most a popular businesses in Selden and I encourage everyone to stop by for some of the best bagels on Long Island. It's great to have them open for business once again."
